

BRITT AIRWAYS BAC 1-11 416/EK

First to fly as Vercoa Air Service in 1956, it later flew as an Allegheny Commuter from 1968 until 1981. It went independent again in 1981 as Britt Airways. Using a variety of aircraft, including the Beech 99, Metro, F-27 and FH-227, Britt entered the jet age on October 1, 1984 when N390BA entered passenger service.
